Regarding the issues raised in the parties' 1/23/2018 JSR [206], the Court Orders the following: (1) the parties shall exchange privilege logs by 2/6/2018; (2) the parties shall file any remaining motions to compel by 2/22/2018, subject to a motion to reconsider that deadline for good cause; (3) based on the parties' report that they have resolved their dispute regarding FCA's confidentiality designations of certain Internal Investigation documents, Plaintiffs will not file a motion to de-designate those documents, but may seek further de-designation of such documents at a later time for good cause; and (4) the parties shall confer regarding the number of fact witness depositions to be taken by each side, and shall file a JSR reporting any such agreement or stating their respective positions on that issue by 2/2/2018. Regarding Plaintiff's Motion to Compel [208], the Court orders the following: (1) Defendant FCA is granted until 1/30/2018 at 2 p.m. to file a response in opposition to the motion or advise the parties and the Court's Courtroom Deputy that the motion is unopposed; (2) if (and only if) the motion is opposed, the Court will conduct a telephone hearing on 1/30/2018 at 4:30 p.m. (the 9:15 a.m. hearing noticed for the motion [209] is canceled), at which time the Court will issue its ruling or request a reply from Plaintiffs, if needed; and (3) no other briefing or materials supporting or opposing the motion shall be filed.
